STARS OF THE WEEK:

15th December 2023

Bees. Sophie: Sophie has had such an amazing week. Her behaviour in lessons and during out Nativity performance has been fabulous. We are so proud of you Sophie!

Butterflies. Aniyah: Aniyah has been fantastic this week, she is working hard on her listening, has been brilliant in the Nativity and is so helpful with all the other children.

Squirrels. Harry: This week, amongst all the Christmas merriment, Harry has been brilliant and knowing where to be and what to be doing. He has helped other children when they have been uncertain and been a real asset in the classroom for the adults. What a great week, Harry! Well done.

Frogs. Kai: Kai has been a superstar this week, she has been an exceptional role model for all of her peers during a crazy week of Nativity's! Well done, Kai!

Mice. Ollie: Ollie has been a real star this week. He opened our nativity play with a bounds of energy and supported his classmates during this busy week. Well done Ollie.

Hedgehogs. Rowan: Rowan has been a superstar in our production. He was the first person to learn his lines and he had the clearest voice in our production with lovely expression. Well done Rowan I can see a future on the stage for you!

Moles. Eva: Eva is always on her best behaviour in the classroom, always very eager to learn and always trying her best in her lessons. Eva is polite and kind and always looking out for her friends. Thank you, Eva!

Rabbits. Olivia: Olivia has made a great effort this week with her participation. Her hand has been up during every lesson to answer questions and share her work. Well done, Olivia!

Badgers. Blake: Blake could have had star of the week many times over this half term. He has really started to mature - becoming a valued and wonderful member of the class. You should feel proud of yourself Blake – Well Done!

Foxes. Lily M: Lily has been coming up with some fantastic ideas in her poetry writing this week and in her geography work. She thinks carefully about what she wants to write and tries to be creative, choosing her own ideas and vocabulary. Well done, Lily.

"Together, we will make a difference."

Kingfishers. Shivam: Shivam has an exceptional attitude to all aspects of his learning. His 'can do' attitude has really paid off, particularly in writing, where he has made exceptional progress. All of Shivam's sentences are now grammatically accurate and he has made fantastic progress! Well done, Shivam!

Owls. Finley: Finley has proven to be a fractions king this week! He has clearly enjoyed mastering fractions, which has shown through his keen enthusiasm and drive to reach emerald challenge almost every lesson. He has shown he is capable of answering increasingly challenging questions with skill and precision. Keep it up, Finley!

Kestrels. George: George deserves star of the week this week because he consistently works hard in class and could have had star of the week every week! He applies the same amount of effort to everything he does. This is demonstrated by his spelling results – scoring full marks every week of this term! Let's hope the Spring term is just as successful.

Sparrow Hawks. Daniel McC: Daniel is working hard in Year 6. He has done brilliantly in his assessments and is always so hopeful, polite and enthusiastic. Well done, Daniel.
