STARS OF THE WEEK:

12th January 2024

Bees. Faith: Faith has had a lovely week and has tried really hard. We have noticed that she has been trying particularly hard with her phonics. Faith has been trying so hard to write words independently too – super week Faith!

Butterflies. Dulcie: Dulcie has had a lovely first week back. She has been concentrating so hard in phonics and has been answering lots of questions within her focussed activities. Well done, Dulcie!

Squirrels. Adelyn: Squirrels class have loved getting to know Adelyn this week. She has settled in so well and is already part of our team. She has shown super listening, shared some fantastic ideas and been keen to try all our activities. She is making lots of friends and we are very proud of her for joining in with everything so well. What a fantastic start to her time at Richard Bonington!

Frogs. Lily-Mae: For settling back into school wonderfully. She embraced wellbeing day taking on the tasks we did and has worked hard during her lessons this week being a shining example to the rest of Frogs Class. Keep up the great work Lily-Mae!

Mice. Erin: Erin could be star of the week every week as she always tries her best, always sets a great example, always looks for ways to improve her work and always impresses us all in mice class. Thank you, Erin, Richard Bonington always needs more children like you.

Hedgehogs. Brody: Brody has been impressing all of the adults he works with this week. He has come back from Christmas with an added sparkle, wowing adults with his two times table work as well as his fabulous phonics! Keep it up Superstar!!

Moles. Tia: Tia has made an excellent start back into Year 3, her confidence has been amazing this week. She is contributing more during lessons and having a go at some tricky Maths this week! Well done, Tia!

Rabbits. Jessica: This week Jessica has stood out to all the teachers in Year 3. She has been participating in all lessons, encouraging others and working hard independently to answer some tricky Maths questions. Well done, Jessica!

Badgers. Zach: Zach is always positive in his actions towards others. He thinks carefully about what he is doing and likes to make other people feel happy. His kindness to others really shines through, which is why he is such a well-liked person in class.

"Together, we will make a difference."

Foxes. Rafe: Rafe has been working really hard this week in every lesson. His handwriting and presentation are superb and he always has ideas and questions to contribute to lessons. Well done, Rafe. Keep up the fantastic work.

Kingfishers. Harry W: Harry has had a fantastic week! He's demonstrated brilliant teamwork by encouraging, supporting and trusting others in PE and sharing his ideas within our Maths lessons. Well done, Harry. Keep up the fantastic work!

Owls. Romario: Romario has worked incredibly hard this week in all his subjects, especially in PE!! He continues to support others in the class and is always the first to share ideas and offer opinions in discussions, as well as making sure all other students are included too! He is an excellent team worker. Well done, Romario!

Kestrels. Poppy: Poppy started the week with some trepidation but as the week has progressed her confidence has returned. She has pushed herself to answer questions when having class conversations and worked extremely hard on the independent tasks in Maths. Keep this up Poppy, you can do it!

Sparrow Hawks. Eryn: This week Eryn has impressed us all with her fantastic story telling skills and participation in our English lessons. She has started the new term in a positive, focused way and is showing us she is ready to embrace the rest of the year in Y6. Well done Eryn!
