STARS OF THE WEEK:

27th September 2024

Bees. Millie: This week Millie has worked really hard to listen and then join in with all our class teaching sessions. She is eager to share her thinking in Maths, knows nearly all of the words and actions for our story and is becoming a brilliant blender in phonics. She beams with pride when she knows the answers to our questions. What a wonderful learner you are, Millie! Well done.

Butterflies. Aqsa: Aqsa has had a great week; she has been joining in with all our focussed sessions and is remembering lots of our phonemes. She is remembering our Elmer story brilliantly and we are so proud of how she is coming into the classroom with a smile in the morning. Well done, Aqsa.

Squirrels. Cooper: Cooper has had his best week yet in Year 1. He found coming back to school a bit tricky but this week things have finally clicked. He has been incredibly helpful during tidy up time and has engaged with other children kindly on lots of occasions. He has also shown great resilience in his work and is trying his hardest every lesson. Well done, Cooper - keep it up!

Frogs. Charlotte: Charlotte has been a super star all week! She has worked hard in with her writing and has lovely handwriting and she has pride in her presentation. Charlotte is always contributing during lessons and setting an excellent example for her friends. Well done, Charlotte!

Mice. Kai: Kai has had some amazing ideas in class this week, particularly in her writing. She thought of some fantastic adverbs. She has also been trying really hard to answer questions and contribute her ideas. Well done, Kai!

Hedgehogs. Arlo: Arlo has been amazing this week! He always has his hand up and is eager to join in and share his ideas. He works hard and is a brilliant role model to the rest of the class. Well done, Arlo!

Moles. Cleo: Cleo has worked so hard this week! She has been putting her hand up in lessons, especially in guided reading and English, and has contributed some great ideas. Also, she has been a really good friend to other members of our class by standing up for others. I'm really impressed by how much Cleo has been participating this week, well done, Cleo!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Rabbits. Alfie: Alfie has been a superb role model for the class this week. He has been helping others as well as showing independence when working. He's always making the right choices and following the Always Code. Keep it up Alfie!

Badgers. Hugo: Hugo continues to be a fantastic role model to the class. Focuses in lessons on task when working independently and always engaging in positive interactions with his classmates. Well done, Hugo! :-)

Foxes. Max: This week Max has been on task in every lesson and always producing quality work. Well Done, Max.

Kingfishers. Benji: Benji has shown improved concentration skills this week. He takes care to repeat instructions back to his teachers to show he has understood. This, in turn, enables Benjo to complete his learning with a greater degree of confidence. Well done, Benji!

Owls. Mason: Mason has had a brilliant week and worked so hard. Other staff members have noticed Mason's sensible and helpful behaviour around school too. Mason's writing today has been phenomenal, and I have been so impressed. Keep it up Mason!

Kestrels. Molly: Molly has had an amazing week and start generally to year 6. She has shown such dedication to her learning in all areas of the curriculum but is also polite, helpful and enthusiastic to learn. Keep this up.

Sparrow Hawks. Dexter: Dexter has made a fantastic start to his time in year 6. He is organised with homework; his table is always neat and tidy and he is the first to start a task. He is also showing us how focused and dedicated he is towards his learning in all subjects- well done Dexter- you are really giving us your all!
