STARS OF THE WEEK:

13th September 2024

Bees. Hailie: All week Haile has been delving into our learning choices with lots of energy and enthusiasm. She has been really creative when making lots of models and dressing up and has been busy finding out new things every day. She has been really kind and caring to the other children and shown super listening. What a super start to her time in FS2!

Butterflies. Georgie: Wow what a fantastic week you have had Georgie. You have settled into Butterflies brilliantly and you have quickly showed us how well you can follow the rules. You focus during carpet sessions, answer questions and are trying super hard in phonics. You are just embracing being in full time school. We are all so proud of you!

Squirrels. Jah’Kai: Since the start of term Jah’Kai has been amazing. He has had a fantastic attitude to being in Year 1 and is always joining in with our learning. Not only that, he has been incredibly kind and helpful to everyone in Squirrels. I am really looking forward to seeing Jah’Kai continue to shine this year! Well done!

Frogs. Mason: Mason has been amazing all week, every time I look at him, he is doing the right thing and is being an excellent role model. He has tried his best throughout the week, been kind and helpful to others and set himself up for a fantastic year ahead. Well done, Mason!

Mice. Harvey-Jay: What an amazing start to the year! Harvey-Jay is so helpful, hardworking and kind. He sets such a good example to everyone. What a superstar. I am looking forward to having you in Year 2 this year 😊

Hedgehogs. Renee-Mae: Renee-Mae has settled in well at Richard Bonington. She has been eager to share her ideas with the class and has tried her best throughout the week. Well done, Renee-Mae!

Moles. Jack C: Jack has shown a great attitude to learning this week. He has persevered throughout all his lessons and has settled into year 3 very well. I am looking forward to seeing what Jack achieves in Year 3, well done Jack!

Rabbits. Erin: Erin has been eager to share her ideas this week, particularly in English. Her creative storytelling impressed us all during our reactivate. Erin should feel proud of her efforts, well done!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Badgers. Prajwal: Prajwal has had a brilliant start to Year 4. His focus and effort in lessons is excellent. He is also growing in confidence and beginning to contribute to lesson discussions as well. Well done, Prajwal!

Foxes. Esme and Jacob: Esme has produced consistently neat work this week and is always on task. Jacob has given excellent answers in Maths and has been focused on task.

Kingfishers. Kaira: Kaira has shown great resilience as she's started her new school. She has a positive attitude in all aspects of her learning and does everything with a huge smile on her face. Well done, Kaira!

Owls. Lily K: Lily has settled so well into Owl class. She has worked so hard this week and even when things have been difficult, she has shown great resilience and always tried her best. We are so proud of you Lily.

Kestrels. Elyas: Elyas has had an amazing start to year 6. He has shown such resilience and a willingness to learn, always smiling and is full of positivity! Well done, Elyas.

Sparrow Hawks. Niamh: Niamh has made a brilliant start to Year 6. She has shown great focus, been extremely hard working and contributed to all our lessons. She should be very proud of herself!
