STARS OF THE WEEK:

10th January 2025

Bees. Evelyn: For working hard in Maths and Phonics, she always tries her best. Well done!

Butterflies. Seb: This week Seb has been fabulous, he is concentrating so hard and is joining in during all our focussed sessions. We have been so impressed during his guided reading sessions and always puts his hand up to answer questions. Well done Seb we are so proud of you. Keep up the great work.

Squirrels. Tallulah: Tallulah has been amazing in this first week back. She has worked really hard in every lesson and been really kind to the other children in the class. I have been so impressed with her positive attitude this week and am looking forward to seeing it for the rest of the term! Well done, Tallulah!

Frogs. Jaleel: Jaleel has had an amazing week in phonics, he has been working hard and trying his best in every way! His sentences in English, been brilliant, and I can see he is working hard at home as well to improve even more. Well done, Jaleel!

Mice. Ella: Ella has been answering questions, working as a team and generally working really hard this week. She has had a really positive attitude coming back after the holidays and we are so pleased with the work she is producing. Well done, Ella!

Hedgehogs. Harry: Harry has really impressed me this week with his readiness to learn. He has worked incredibly hard in all his lessons and is always striving to do the best he can. Well done Harry, keep up the good work!

Moles. Arlo: Arlo has come back to school with a great attitude and has worked hard in all his lessons. He has tried his best and has shown great determination and resilience in his learning. I am very impressed, well done, Arlo!

Rabbits. Jamal: Jamal has been extremely impressive in Maths showing his knowledge of his times tables. He has been able to apply his knowledge to pictures and real-world situations. He always has his hand up helps others and has done a great job of welcoming me/Mr L to the class.

Badgers. AJ Clark: AJ has been a superstar this week. His focus, efforts and enthusiasm for lessons – especially English – has been excellent.

"Together, we will make a difference."

Foxes. Poppy: Poppy has worked well this week. She has been positive approach to her learning and when supported she has then worked well independently to finish work.

Kingfishers. Isabelle: This week, Isabelle has had a really positive attitude, great focus and resilience with her learning.

Owls. Elizabeth: Elizabeth is always a fantastic member of Owl class but this week she has really shown what a fabulous author she is. Elizabeths story writing this week has been phenomenal. She has been using a range of punctuation and sentence structures, and I have been really impressed reading them. Well done, Elizabeth!

Kestrels. Eloise: In English this week we have been studying the poem 'The Jabberwocky' and the children were tasked with writing their own poem in the style of it but following a theme of their choice. Eloise worked so hard to get the vocabulary that fitted and replaced the adjectives, verbs and nouns brilliantly. Well done, Eloise.

Sparrowhawks. Hari: Hari has impressed us with his focus and attitude to learning in the last few weeks. He did a fantastic job of learning his spellings for the end of term test. Mrs Barlow was very impressed! He has also progressed in his reading and gone up a book band colour since last term! Amazing Hari - keep up the great work.
