STARS OF THE WEEK:

22nd November 2024

Bees. Chizaram: Chizaram has been working so hard all week, she has been listening brilliantly, blending her words in guided reading and has been showing us her fantastic acting skills in English.

Butterflies. Florence: Wow what a great week you have had Flo, you have been a shining star in all our lessons. Acting our story in English, sound talking and blending in phonics and concentrating brilliantly in Maths. You are a great role model and always make the right choices.

Squirrels. Amelia: Amelia has been amazing this week, as she is every week! This week Amelia has been working extremely hard in our lessons and has given some brilliant answers. She is also incredibly kind and helps other children when needed. I can always rely on Amelia to do the right thing – well done, Amelia!

Frogs. Vinnie: Vinnie has had an amazing week! He has been a superstar in phonics by using our new split digraphs to correctly spell his words and spotting them in words. During choosing time, he has done some fantastic sentences and some Maths work completely independently. I am so proud of how hard Vinnie has worked this week! Well done, Vinnie!

Mice. Madison: Madison has been so much more confident in recent weeks. She has been constantly giving amazing ideas in lessons and sharing answers. Her work is always wonderful, and she sets a superb example for everyone. Keep up the fantastic work Madison 😊.

Hedgehogs. Primrose: Primrose has worked hard in every lesson this week. She has been showing a readiness to learn in all lessons and is a great role model to her peers. She tries hard and chooses the right choices. Keep up the good work Prim!

Moles. Ken: Ken has worked hard in every lesson this week especially in Maths and English. He has been putting his hands up for every question and has been trying hard not to shout out. I'm really impressed with how much progress he has made this week, well done Ken!

Rabbits. Phoebe: Phoebe has shown us her confident side this week. Her readiness to learn in the classroom is excellent and such a good role model for her peers. Keep sharing answers and participating in lessons. Well done, Phoebe!

"Together, we will make a difference."

Badgers. Miles: Miles is a fantastic pupil to have in class. He is well-behaved, works hard and loves to get involved and answer questions. You're a superstar Miles. Well Done!

Foxes. Jacob: Has been a star this week because he has been extremely focused in all lessons. He has been putting his hand up to answer question and not being afraid to get things wrong. He has made inciteful comments and tried hard to present his work neatly and accurately.

Kingfishers: Bailey: Bailey has worked so hard to develop his mathematical skills over the last few weeks. He is attentive and is determined to improve. What more could we ask of you Bailey! Well done!

Owls. Amelia Grace: Amelia has a can-do attitude that is absolutely unstoppable. She completely throws herself into every task and will show utter resilience in every subject. Amelia's hand is always up, eager to answer every question and she always tries her best. Well done, Amelia Grace!

Kestrels. Sofia: Sofia has been selected for star of the week because of her amazing input during our Knife Crime workshop this week. She asked thought provoking questions and worked well when discussing important issues. Well done.

Sparrow Hawks. Rose: Rose has really applied herself in all subject areas this term. She is smashing all the difficult work we have covered with fractions and is making fantastic progress with her writing. Well done, Rose keep up this great focus!
